Temple Talk

Rabbi's Corner

By: Rabbi David Finkelstein

"The following message from Rabbi David was sent to the TBI community on Friday, May 27."

Dear TBI Community,

I am reaching out to you just before Shabbat to unite our community in sadness and resolve. Terrible things have happened in this country during the past two weeks, and I have been feeling heartsick, afraid, angry, numb. If you are experiencing some of these emotions as well, please know that you are not alone. Many tears are being shed.

Last week, a gunman motivated by racist hatred murdered ten people between the ages of 32 and 86, mostly African Americans, at a grocery store in Buffalo, NY. Today, we continue to learn details about another massacre, this one at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, TX. The victims included nineteen children between the ages of 9 and 11, mostly Latinx.

Far from being isolated incidents, these massacres are part of patterns of domestic terrorism in our times. NPR reported this week that 27 school shootings have taken place in this country so far this year. Minorities and people of color continue to be targeted by racist hatred and conspiracy theories.

I have offered thoughts, and I will offer prayers. To do so is my rabbinic duty as well as a necessary expression of my soul. But thoughts and prayers are incomplete without action. We must not surrender to apathy and

Fresh from the Bakery: Wilderness

By: Dina Wolfman Baker

As we enter June, we also enter into the book of Numbers, in Hebrew known as B'midbar—or "in the wilderness"—for its first word of significance.

Yet I associate the summer season in which we'll read B'midbar with nothing like the barrenness that comes to mind when I think of wilderness. Summer feels nourishing and colorful: full of warmth, of lush plant life, of fresh produce, of days hiking and kayaking, and of opportunities to be with family and friends whom I don't often get to see.

In our synagogue life, summer is between our big holidays (other than Shabbat, of course, which arrives without fail each week), service attendance sometimes creeps lower as people head out of town, and we have fewer meetings of the board and committees. Yet I see not the empty period that a wilderness might imply but rich opportunity for renewal. Below are a few examples.

The Return of Kiddush

With the permission of our Community Health Task Force, the planning of our Shabbat group within the Ritual Committee, and the help of volunteers who set out and clear the wine and snacks, we have just resumed having kiddush after Shabbat services. While it is a limited gathering—not the lunch we used to serve—it marks a renewal of a cherished ritual and time to socialize for the first time in more than two years.

Annual Meeting of the Membership

On Sunday, June 12, from 10:00 am to Noon, we will hold our annual meeting. This is one of the most critical ways that we renew our congregational life, by electing directors and voting on bylaws changes to continue to move our congregation to the future. Offered both at TBI (25 Harvard Street, Waltham) and online, this will be the first time in three years that we will come together in person for this important event.

If you will not be able to attend the annual meeting (in person or online) you may participate in the election of directors by absentee ballot. Absentee ballots now are available at the TBI office. You may come to TBI during office hours to obtain a ballot or request that one be mailed to you by calling the office at 781-894-5146 or emailing the office at office@tbiwaltham.org. You must return your completed ballot no later than 11:00 am on Friday, June 10, 2022.

To attend online, use this Zoom link:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/81679406472?pwd=bng2bVdCVVNsYkwxVnRZOWJ5OU9RUT09>

Meeting ID: 816 7940 6472

Passcode: 516321

NextGen Programming

We have a strong group of members and friends in their 20s, 30s and early 40s, and their programming continues as we go into the summer. I am not aware of all they are doing, but I know that in just one weekend in June they are engaging in a Havdalah bonfire and a Sunday cooking class. Many in this group are participating in services and becoming involved in committee work. TBI has received a grant to help underwrite some of NextGen's activities, and we are renewed by the perspective, engagement and energy of this next generation in our community.

Shabbat Under the Stars

On Friday evening, July 15, weather permitting, we'll once again enjoy Shabbat Under the Stars. This annual event in my back yard begins at 6:30 and includes Kabbalat Shabbat with volunteer recognition, followed by a vegetarian community potluck* dinner. It connects us to each other, to nature and to prayer—truly a mid-summer renewal.

To attend in person, link here to pre-register no later than July 7 and receive the location address.

To attend the service and volunteer recognition online, use the regular Friday night link that appears on the TBI website, but with a 6:30 start.

*Beverages, hallah, and paper- and plastic-ware will be provided by the host. Dinner will be brought by the guests. The decision will be made, based on Covid-19 data, whether to have a traditional potluck or a bring-only-your-own potluck. Registrants will receive an email with that decision one week prior to the event.

The Synagogue Year Begins

In August, we will hold the first TBI Board of Directors meeting of the 2022-23 year, beginning again just as summer comes to an end.

As summer starts, we are heading into the wilderness in our Torah cycle. Perhaps we can best think of it as the wide-open space that leaves room for us to find the growth, renewal and connection that carry us forward to the ever greater richness of our community.

The annual meeting of the membership will take place on Sunday, June 12, 10:00 am to Noon, and we encourage you to attend. We intend that it will be a multi-access meeting, both in-person at Temple Beth Israel at 25 Harvard Street in Waltham, and online using Zoom. If the public health situation requires, we will move to fully online.

We will vote on new board members and on bylaws revisions. If you cannot attend, absentee ballots for the board member vote are available from the office. (There is no absentee voting on the bylaws revisions due to the need to present and clarify them before the vote.)

The proposed bylaws revisions will be shared with current members via email on June 1 to allow for review in advance. They also will be distributed at the meeting. If you would like a paper copy in advance of the meeting, please request it from the TBI office.

To attend online, use this Zoom link:

hopelessness. These deaths are not merely the price of our freedom. As a Talmudic teaching says, "When the community is immersed in suffering, a person may not say: I will go to my home and I will eat and drink, and peace be upon you, my soul" (Ta'anit 11a). Such surrender is the opposite of a Jewish value. The value of preserving life (piku'ach nefesh) is and must be paramount as an expression of Jewish values.

Therefore, I urge us all to take political action. Call your representatives. Give money to a cause you care about. Take direct political action. Vote. Do something, in the name of God and in the name of the sanctity of human life.

Below, you will find the names and ages of the people who were murdered in Buffalo and in Uvalde. I urge you to say their names out loud.

May the memory of the slain inspire us to take action to protect and cherish the living.

May their families and friends, loved ones and neighbors, find comfort.

May cruelty and fear be uprooted from our hearts.

May we all find comfort.

May the One who makes peace in the heights make peace among us, too, among all the people Israel, and among all Earth's inhabitants.

Amen

Saturday evening June 4 TIKKUN (Pre-kkun) LEYL SHAVUOT (online only)

TBI community will gather online Saturday evening at 7:30pm for Torah study in observance of Shavuot, before Shavuot arrives, during the final hours of Shabbat. Rabbi David, Penina Weinberg, and Scott Tepper will teach some timely and/or favorite Torah. A little after 9:00pm, we will light candles and say Shehecheyanu for the official start of Shavuot. Scott's session is entitled "Samson: Cis Het Dude with Issues." Penina's session is entitled "Naomi's Transformation in the Book of Ruth." Utilizing the stunning woodcuts of Margaret Adams Parker, Penina will tell the story of Naomi's transformation from bitter empty soul to honored elder and mother to Ruth's child. Rabbi David will share a psalm and two creative renditions of that psalm.

Remembering Toby (Thelma) Kennen

By: Mark Frydenberg

Toby ("Thelma") Kennen was a longtime resident of Waltham and a dedicated member of our synagogue who passed away in May 2022. Along with the Barons, the Bakers, the Griffs, the Canters, and many others, Thelma along with her husband Yukee, of blessed memory, were among the last of this generation of Waltham families whose work on committees, with Sisterhood, and at Bingo sustained Temple Beth Israel for decades.

Thelma enjoyed staying connected with the Temple community even after her husband Yukee died in 2018. She attended occasional events, dinners, and services, and later enjoyed visits from congregants.

Condolences to her children, Anita, Robert and his wife Elaine, Alan and his wife Gelene and Jeffrey and his wife Laurie. She was a grandmother to Lisa McCarthy and her husband Andrew, Michael, Brian, Aaron, and Aliana Kennen and great-grandmother of Connor and Liam McCarthy.

May Thelma's memory be a blessing.

Remembrance of Lillian Etkind May 23, 2022

I met Lillian Etkind at Temple Beth Israel in late 2001 when I was attending Friday morning services to honor my Father who died earlier that year. We would see each other briefly during and after services for a quick coffee and chat weekly. After a while, we discovered that we liked speaking to one another about a variety of things.

Lillian was always fond of Mr. Hollender, who shared her taste for herring and conversation. They shared stories about growing older and some of its challenges. Of course, they both had ideas about how to deal gracefully with whatever life brought them.

Lillian was a remarkable woman who lived a wonderful life filled with a loving husband, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was very proud of all their accomplishments and enjoyed sharing their triumphs.

I feel lucky to have known Lillian for over 20 years. Having a friend like her has been a gift. I could always count on her to be ready for coffee and a blueberry muffin at her home in Waltham in the years after she stopped driving and was not attending Friday morning services.

In her later years, I visited her in her new surroundings in Cohasset. She courageously adapted and made a life with new people and doing new things. I admired her greatly for that.

I will miss Lillian and I am so glad that she lived to enjoy 103 years.

Social Justice Committee Report

By: Linda Ungerleider

Thank you to all committee members and congregants for your dedication, time and support for the projects and programs we developed and supported. Your participation has made our efforts relevant in our community and in the greater Waltham community.

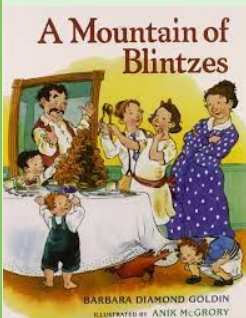

The second session of Fighting Antisemitism program was a huge success. The collaboration with First Parish Waltham UU allowed us to begin building allyship within our faith community as we gathered many suggestions on how to do so. Watch for more information as we move forward in recognizing and addressing antisemitism, the oldest hate.

The Social Justice Committee continues to collect clothing, food and personal care items for The Community Day Center and books for More Than Words with collection bins in our lobby. The Warming Center's many guests appreciated a welcoming caring place to be on Sundays. We supplied a monthly dinner for the Night Shelter.

The Inclusion Committee dedicated a space for large print books, readers (glasses) and fidget devices in the sanctuary. They also hosted a Community Conversation on becoming a Dementia Friend, which received very positive feedback from participants. Thank you, Howard Trachtman and Linda Ungerleider, Dementia Champions, for facilitating this program.

TBI Bookshelf

by Marilyn Racette

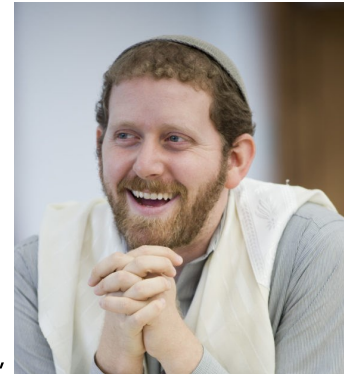

Early this month we'll be celebrating Shavuot, the Festival of Weeks. We are remembering the Spring harvest and receiving the Torah on Mount Sinai. Our library has two delightful children's books to help with the celebration.

A Mountain of Blintzes by Barbara Diamond Golden, illustrated by Anik McGrory, tells the story of Max and Sarah, hard-working parents who never seem to have enough money. Moe, their oldest, is learning about Shavuot in Hebrew school, and reminds them that it's only weeks away. "Such an important holiday!" says Sarah. "What a mountain of blintzes I could make! If only there was a little extra to spare." The humorous story is loosely based on a traditional tale set in Chelm, the Polish town filled with foolish people. But don't worry, everything works out in the end!

The Art Lesson, by Alison and Wayne Marks and illustrated by Annie Wilkerson, is about a young girl who loves her weekly visits with her artist grandmother. It's also about imagination, and the passing on of a beautiful Eastern European tradition of making cut paper decorations to hang in the windows for the Shavuot holiday.

Temple Beth Israel Memorial Park

Temple Beth Israel has maintained a cemetery for its members since 1951. Beth Israel Memorial Park is located on South Street, between the Stanley Elementary School and Children's Hospital. Graves are available in Section A (the right side as you enter the cemetery), Section B (the left side as you enter the cemetery) and in Kulanu (the left side, after Section B). The cost to purchase an individual grave in Sections A or B for Temple members is $2,200 ($4,400 for two). The cost for non-members is $3,200 per grave, which includes one year of membership ($600).

Kulanu is dedicated to serving the needs of Jewish Temple members who are married to a non-Jewish spouse. Graves in the Kulanu interfaith section are sold in lots of two, at a total cost of $4,400 for members. The cost for non-members is $7,600 for a lot of two, which includes one year of family membership ($1,200).

If you are interested in purchasing one or more graves, please contact Jay Trilling of Menorah Cemetery Management Corporation at (857) 636-9440.

—Jim Baron, Cemetery Committee Chair
