Brought To You By Rabbi Ben: Nurturing the Growth

By: Rabbi Benjamin Chaidell

Happy (secular) New Year!

Many feel motivated with the fresh start of the year to make resolutions for personal growth. Whether it is committing to more exercise, to eat more vegetables, or to volunteer, the new year offers an opportunity to turn a new leaf and establish new patterns in our lives. But, as anyone who has made a resolution can testify, these resolutions are hard to keep. According to Drive Research, just 9 percent of adults follow through on their new year's resolution! How, then, do we hold ourselves accountable to the change we seek to make?

Dr. Laurie Santos on the Happiness Podcast suggests a surprising answer: gratitude. In a recent episode, she shares research that feeling grateful empowers us to see the big picture and invest in our future selves, as well as to help others. When we are grateful, we feel a sense of abundance and a desire to give back. That can often lead to gifts to others, but it also can motivate us to give to our future selves by working toward our goals. A gratitude practice like a diary, sharing highlights of a day with a close friend or partner, or many Jewish prayers enables us to benefit

President's Message

By: Linda Ungerleider

A highlight of the past two months at TBI was the Pajama Havdalah. Our young families and guests from BJEP enjoyed playing, learning, singing and eating together! Although I did not attend the Hanukkah Party, I have only heard rave reviews! Thank you to our Next Gen group who took the lead in program development and implementation and to all those who helped.

What is community? According to AI it is: _____. I purposely left the definition and characteristics blank. Along with Rabbi Ben, I often speak about what being in the TBI community has meant to me and in expressing the sense of our growing community at every opportunity.

I am now asking you to let me and others know what the TBI community means to you. Please add one word that is not already on the Word Cloud. Use this link to Word Cloud: answer.garden.ch/5105905

If you would rather email your word, please send it to me at ulinda@gmail.com. There will also be a place to write your word on the Word Cloud in the lobby. I am hoping that everyone who receives our bulletin and eblasts will respond. I can't wait to see your creativity and the final Word Cloud.

Watch for exciting programs and learning opportunities, as well as, our services in the coming months.

See you at TBI or on Zoom

Linda

from the power of gratitude.

In just a few weeks we will celebrate Tu Beshvat, the new year for trees. The Kabbalists of Tzfat adapted the Passover seder to create a Tu Beshvat seder consisting of blessings for the various kinds of fruit and vegetables that we enjoy. The gratitude we feel on this holiday for the trees around us and the produce we enjoy can motivate us to eat healthfully and reach our potential. Tu Beshvat is timed to celebrate trees' birthdays at the season when their sap begins to flow and they begin to grow buds and leaves. In Israel, the almond tree flowers on this holiday. Tu Beshvat is a time to consider our potential as well and how we can blossom when we feel grateful and motivated to act for ourselves and others. Join us at our Tu Beshvat Seder and Tree Fair Monday evening Feb. 2 to learn more!

Join us at TBI for many opportunities to realize personal and communal potential in the new year. Lois has offered to train TBI members regardless of background in learning to chant Haftorah. TBI members are reading Torah, leading prayers, and teaching in honor of their bar or bat mitzvah anniversaries as part of Commit to the Brit led by Susan. Our new Family Engagement Fund will kickstart family programs that build our community and nurture the next generation to grow. And our TBIF task force draws out our community's potential to make the most of our building and sustain our future. It is an exciting time at TBI. I am full of gratitude for everything we have done, and I cannot wait to see what we will do in 2026!

SHAPING OUR FUTURE: An Update from the Temple Beth Israel Futures Committee

By Mark Frydenberg, TBIF Chair and Past-President, TBI

When President Linda Ungerlieder invited me to chair the TBI Futures (TBIF) committee last October, I took on the task with a goal of making sure Temple Beth Israel remains a vibrant community for many years to come. TBI serves its members in many different ways, and our religious services and community programs are quite successful: for example, Rabbi Ben's and Scott Tepper's classes draw a consistent level of participation; 25% of our members attend services on average each Shabbat morning; several members volunteer for our weekly warming center; our NextGen group continues to grow and take an active role in planning activities not only for themselves but also for the community at large. With all this happening, it's important to look ahead and consider what we can do now to plan for TBI's future.

At a recent TBIF meeting, we used a "See, Think, Wonder" activity to help us look at our current situation with fresh eyes. Committee members wrote down objective facts that they SEE about the state of Temple Beth Israel today (our building, our membership, our community, our finances, our partnerships, etc). From there, we listed the strategic implications of those statements (THINK) and finally asked questions that we WONDER about and need to get more information. Here's a bit of what we learned:

- We SEE a building that, while a wonderful physical asset to our congregation, is under-utilized during the week, and has real needs regarding accessibility and projected maintenance. We SEE that while our endowment is stable for at least the next decade, fewer than 45% of our membership is currently contributing the full dues amount.
- This makes us THINK that we need to be more active about outreach and financial planning now. It also requires us to THINK about the best ways we can use our building to support TBI in the future.

It makes us WONDER about big ideas, like how and whether we might update or transform our building, or consider other meeting options to better serve our congregation and the community.

To turn these reflections into reality, we've organized next steps into three broad categories:

- Membership and Financial Health: We will be connecting with members, following up on pledges, and exploring ways to grow our resources through legacy gifts and professional support.
- Building and Land Potential: We are researching zoning, building codes, and accessibility requirements to see what options might be possible for adapting or updating our current building.

Operations and Grants: We are exploring grant opportunities to help with preserving or repurposing our building and growing our community.

The committee is composed of both new and long-standing members of TBI, all of whom are invested in its future. We plan to prepare a preliminary report and hold a community conversation in the spring. We'll continue to keep you updated on our progress in the bulletin.

TEMPLE BETH ISRAEL HONORS CANTOR ELLEN BAND FOR 25 YEARS OF SERVICE

Join us for Saturday morning services on January 17, 2026, at 9:30am as TBI honors Cantor Ellen Band for 25 years of service. Cantor Band started at TBI in 2001 and has participated in High Holiday Services every year since then. She has also participated in other services at various times throughout the year, serving as a cantor, prayer leader, and Torah reader here at TBI and at Congregation Mishkan Tefillah.

Ellen Band is also an accomplished sound artist and composer, whose sound sculptures and installations have been presented at Logan Airport, and festivals such as the Sound Symposium and Sound Culture. She is the founder and director of Audible Visions, a sound and music series in her Somerville, MA, loft.

Cantor Band will participate in and speak at Shabbat morning services. A festive lunch will follow the service. Sponsorship opportunities are available if you would like to support this special event to honor Cantor Ellen Band's dedication to TBI. Please contact the Temple office or send your contribution to Temple Beth Israel noting that it is in honor of Cantor Ellen Band's 25 years of service to TBI.

"Oy, Another Book the TBI Book Lovers Club"

Hey everyone so our official new name is "Oy, Another Book the TBI Book Lovers Club" thank you to everyone who participated and made it such an enjoyable time. Also to those at our meeting thank you the conversations were so enlightening and definitely made me think. Our group is amazing and thank you for being flexible next months meeting will be back to our regular type and discussions.

New Views on Parsha:

The Protest of the Midwives - Thursday 1/8, 12-1 PM

Online ONLY at Zoom link here

Commanded to murder the Israelite boys, the midwives of Egypt do something astounding: they stand up to the god-like Pharaoh and defy his order. Who were these midwives and what motivated their act of generosity for the Hebrew slaves? We will explore what we can learn from them and other righteous gentile and human rights heroes about standing up to tyranny and oppression.

Jewish Views on Abortion— Thursday 2/12, 12-1 PM

Online ONLY at Zoom link here

A verse in this week's Torah portion sets the precedent in Jewish law to establish full status of human life at birth, rather than at conception. We will examine this verse and its interpretation over the ages to consider Jewish views on abortion which offer a different religious perspective on this debate.

Hot Topics:

The Kabbalistic Tu Beshvat Seder Sunday January 25, 10:30 AM at TBI (in-person) following minyan at 9 AM and breakfast

Minyan and class accessible on Zoom here

In this class we will encounter the first published Tu Beshvat Seder, the Pri Etz Hadar, as we explore the Kabbalistic adaptation of the Passover seder to Tu Beshvat and the meaning it offers to cultivate gratitude and connection to God, nature, and one another.

Best Practices in Bikkur Cholim Sunday February 22nd, 10:30 AM in-person at TBI following minyan at 9 AM and breakfast

Minyan and class accessible on Zoom here

Visiting someone who is sick (bikkur cholim) can be both profoundly impactful and very awkward. In this class we will consider the spiritual and emotional power of this mitzvah as well as recommendations from Jewish law and pastoral care for how to visit the sick in ways that empower and respect.

Lois' Haftarah class:

Trop Workshop Series!

Learn the musical system for chanting Haftarah in a series of workshops to be held on Zoom. Open to all. Please contact Rabbi Ben (rabbibenchaidell@gmail.com) to indicate interest and get more information.

What Has TBI Been Up To

Levine Loop Outing

On Sunday November 16, Catherine and Dianne organized a meaningful and invigorating outing to the Levine Loop in Bedford. This trail dedicated to Dianne's husband Mark Levine z"l honors his many years volunteering to maintain and manage the trail. We visited the bench dedicated to Mark and took a brisk walk through woods and near a lake, telling people we met on the trail about Mark. It was an uplifting day for all!

Memorial for Sam Shriberg z"l

On Veterans Day Rabbi Ben joined a service led by VFW Chaplain Kelly Durkee-Erwin in honor of Sam Shriberg z"l, Waltham pharmacist, WWII veteran, TBI member, and founder of Support our Servicemen, which sent care packages to US soldiers. Volunteers who served with Sam as well as veterans who received his packages came to pay their respects. Sam modeled for us the best of Jewish and American values, dedicating himself to the community in many ways, including co-founding the Waltham Little League, chairing the Waltham Hospital Building Fund, and developing the New England Area Diabetes Association. On November 24, Rabbi Ben joined Sam's daughter, Judy, to receive a City Proclamation honoring Sam for his work for Vietnam Veterans on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the end of the Vietnam War.

Faith and Resilience Shine at Waltham's Annual Menorah Lighting

By: June Kinoshita at the Waltham Times online Newspaper
December 21, 2025

About 50 Waltham residents gathered Dec. 18 in the City Council chambers for the city's annual menorah lighting. Mayor Jeannette A. McCarthy welcomed attendees and turned the proceedings over to Rabbi Benjamin Chaidell of Temple Beth Israel.

Chaidell called for a moment of silence in memory of the victims of the recent mass shootings at Brown University and Bondi Beach in Australia, where Jews had gathered for a Hanukkah celebration. "The terrorists want us to be afraid," he said. "The best way to respond is to show up and not be afraid to be who you are."

He led children in a question-and-answer session about Hanukkah, which commemorates the second-century B.C.E. victory of the Maccabees over a Syrian Greek ruler who sought to ban Jewish religious practice. After their victory the Jews rededicated the Holy Temple in Jerusalem but found only enough purified oil to keep the menorah burning for one night. The oil miraculously lasted eight days, long enough for more oil to be prepared.

"We're thankful Waltham is a welcoming community," Chaidell said. He helped the children light candles on three menorahs and led the group in singing Hanukkah songs. Children also played with dreidels, recalling a time when Jews used the game to disguise secret study sessions of religious texts, which had been outlawed by the Syrian Greek empire.

Celebrate the New Year for Trees

Temple Beth Israel invites the greater Waltham community to celebrate Tu BiSh'vat, the Jewish birthday of trees, with a short "tasting" service blessing the fruits of trees, sampling the produce of Israel, and learning our responsibility to protect the environment. We will then hear from local environmental leaders on the work they do in our community and enjoy an interactive "tree fair" with hands-on activities to learn how you can make a difference right here in Waltham!

TBI Bookshelf

By Marilyn Racette

Isaac Bashevis Singer graced this earth from 1904-1991. He was the author of novels, stories, and even children's books, and won the Nobel Prize for literature in 1978, which may seem like ancient history to some of our temple members. Born in Poland, Singer's stories reflect the world he knew, Eastern European Jewry and the non-Jewish communities they were part of, but also the universality and complexity of human nature. In The Spinoza of Market Street, a collection of short stories set in that Eastern European world, Singer manages, within a few pages, to draw masterpieces, tales at once ancient and modern, combining elements both realistic and fantastic. He truly is a master storyteller.

Temple Beth Israel Memorial Park

Temple Beth Israel has maintained a cemetery for its members since 1951. Beth Israel Memorial Park is located on South Street, between the Stanley Elementary School and Children's Hospital. Graves are available in Section A (the right side as you enter the cemetery), Section B (the left side as you enter the cemetery) and in Kulanu (the left side, after Section B). The cost to purchase an individual grave in Sections A or B for Temple members is $2,200 ($4,400 for two). The cost for non-members is $3,600 per grave, which includes one year of membership.

You must be a Temple member for two or more consecutive years to take advantage of Member pricing; Non-member pricing applies to all others.

Kulanu is dedicated to serving the needs of Jewish Temple members who are married to a non-Jewish spouse. Graves in the Kulanu interfaith section are sold in lots of two, at a total cost of $4,400 for members. The cost for non-members is $7,200 for a lot of two, which includes one year of family membership.

If you are interested in purchasing one or more graves, please contact Jay Trilling of Menorah Cemetery Management Corporation at (857) 636-9440.
